

University of Ulster Jordanstown Campus - Medical Problems

For any serious accidents, medical emergency etc. in the first instance please call
Security on 028 903 66971

because they are trained first-aiders and for more serious injuries or medical emergencies know what information to provide for an ambulance and or doctor to swiftly attend on campus to provide the best medical attention. They will also assist for any less serious medical problem.

There is a clinic on the campus, next to Accommodation Services, close to Dalriada Halls of Residence -

Opening Times

Monday to Thursday..9.00 - 5.00

Wednesday 9.00 - 9.00

Friday.....9.00 - 4.00

Tel: 028 903 68098

Fax: 028 903 68094

Email:.....uuclinic@ulster.ac.uk

If you have any medical problem please seek medical attention as soon as possible and if possible please advice me so that we can be aware of your location and offer assistance as possible.

Security have information on all the local hospitals and out-of-hours doctors etc.

Robert

Robert P. Morley
Manager – Hydrogen Safety Programme

University of Ulster
Faculty of Engineering
Newtownabbey, Co. Antrim, BT37 0QB
Northern Ireland, UK
Tel. +44 (0)28 903 68763
Fax +44 (0)28 903 68700
E-mail: rp.morley@ulster.ac.uk